ORDER

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT the Agency's unopposed motion to extend production deadline by 30 days is GRANTED.

The Postal Service has presented three reasons why they will be unable to meet the deadline for production. The reasons cited are: 1) issues the Agency has had with downloading and merging data; 2) the Agency is still waiting to get certain requested information from OPM regarding former employees and it has not yet responded to the Agency's request; and lastly, 3) the Agency needs time to conform my order of June 2022 with the former protective order from 2008.

The Agency's explanation for reasons 1 and 2 certainly demonstrate good cause, however, reason 3 is vague. The protective order of 2008/2010 is clear and ongoing. The Agency has not delineated what provisions from the two orders that need to be brought into conformity. To that end, the Commission finds the Agency's reliance on this reason confusing and unpersuasive.

Notwithstanding, the Agency's request is GRANTED.

The Agency's production is due July 15, 2022. All subsequent deadlines are also extended by 30 days.
